2024

Students across the cohort averaged 40 points. More than 60% of students secured over 40 points and two students achieved the remarkable and rare feat of a maximum score of 45 points. Over 83% of all individual grades were 6 or 7, the equivalent of A/A*.

2023

Overall students averaged 38 points, dwarfing the global average, and reinforcing The Abbey's position as the leading IB provider in the county and one of the leading all-girls' IB schools in the world. In total around half of the cohort received scores of 40 or more out of a maximum of 45.

2022

The average score at The Abbey was over 40 - against a world average of just under 32. Three students achieved 44 points. Four other students achieved 43 points. Overall, 15 out of the 21 students in the cohort achieved 40 points or more.
